

attend

(WHERE TO GO, SEE & BE SEEN)

The Feast weekend of creative and delectable activities is in large part the brainchild of Michael Esposito, co-chairs Michelle M. Alexander and Yolanda S. Walther-Meade, Andrew Spurgin, and Dawn Parks

PHOTOGRAPHY BY BOB STEFANKO

Where Palate Meets Palette

The New Children's Museum will unveil Feast: The Art of Playing With Your Food on October 10 with Feasting in Versailles, a VIP patron party that transports guests to the court of Louis XIV. Exquisite cuisine from renowned chefs will be served in a multi-sensory culinary theater experience, followed by curated tours of the exhibition. On Saturday, October 12, at Feasting in Wonderland, enjoy delectable offerings by notable San Diego chefs and mixologists, inspired by commissioned art in Feast. Music and entertainment will be featured throughout the museum to complement the culinary experience. Tickets are $500 (Feasting in Versailles) and $175 (Feasting in Wonderland). (619.233.8792, www.thinkplaycreate.org/feast)