CREATING WONDER: AN INVITATION TO VIEW AN ARTIST WORK-IN-PROGRESS

WHAT

The New Children's Museum will unveil its newest and largest interactive installation, The Wonder Sound by artist Wes Sam-Bruce on June 25, 2016, on Mass Creativity Day (free day).

Media are invited to view the work in progress and construction. Artist in-“museum” and available for interviews and “hard hat” behind-the-scenes tours

The Wonder Sound is a labyrinth of rooms, tunnels and continuous exploration. The structure pulls its inspiration from tree houses, forts and clubhouses as well as from history, ancient people and cultures, and from stories and memories from people all over San Diego.

“The Wonder Sound merges fact and fiction, the known and the unknown. The viewer becomes an investigator and an explorer in this strange threshold.” – Artist Wes Sam-Bruce
